I've been developing the menus for DoubleTree by Hilton Dunblane Hydro for 14 years, ever since I launched my flagship restaurant The Kailyard by Nick Nairn here in the hotel. In that time the food we produce has become tastier and more personal.

I'm lucky to have a great team of chefs, under the watchful eye of Executive head chef, Brian Scanlin. Together we have developed dishes that utilise the very best of Scottish produce and are cooked in a way that makes the most of these wonderful raw materials.
